OCTOBER 2026

SIUT holds Live Paediatric Urology Surgery Workshop with International Experts

Internationally renowned Paediatric urologist met at SIUT from 23 - 25 Sept 2026 for a three day workshop to discuss congenital urinary disorders which is commonly found among male infants of developing countries. Globally renowned surgeons who were part of the deliberations include Dr Warren T. Snodgrass, Dr Nicol C. Bush from the United States, Dr Gianantonio Manzoni from Italy and Dr Philip G. Ransley from United Kingdom and Prof. Sajid Sultan from SIUT.

Prof. Sajid Sultan Head of Paediatric Urology at SIUT who closely worked with Dr Manzoni introduced the same surgical techniques in the infant population in Pakistan. The workshop demonstrated and discussed a wide range of cases reported in children's hospital of SIUT. A large number of surgeons from all over Pakistan attended the workshop and helped to advance the care of children suffering with "hypospadias" in all parts of the country and other parts of Asia.

Past and present programs consistently bring world-renowned specialists including Dr. Warren Snodgrass, Dr. Nicol Bush, Dr. Gianantonio Manzoni, and Dr. Philip Ransley to the institute. Working alongside local specialists like Dr. Sajid Sultan, these global leaders help embed modern international standards into Pakistan's medical community.

Training hundreds of surgeons from across Pakistan and neighboring Asian countries through these structured sessions helps lower surgical complication rates, improve first-time success, and elevate the overall standard of Paediatric urological care. ■
